Experience Software Engineering Intern, StyleSeek
December 2012 through Summer 2013
Joined the dev team & got hands-on experience with the behind-the-scenes of an emerging tech startup. Revamped the look of the site to how it is now and led the formatting of content & backend processes of the (new) newsletter.

Online Editor, buzz Magazine
Spring 2014 present
Currently in charge of content and maintenance for the website of buzz, a student-run magazine under Illini Media. Working with designers to launch a new version of the site, and manage content editors to keep content up-to-date.

Lead Designer, Star Course
Fall 2012 through Spring 2014
Produced all design-related components for Star Course, a student-run concert promotions organization. Included a complete redesign of star-course.com as well as leading a committee to complete tasks and meet deadlines.

Frontend Engineer, 54.io
Fall 2013
Part of the founding team of an on-campus startup event, where students are encouraged to launch a company in a weekend. Helped design & maintain the website, 54.io, as well as planning and marketing.
